Service of Blessing for a child – what happens on the day

• You should try to sit as a family near the front – seats will be reserved for you. If you need to get up to feed or change your child please feel free to do so. The blessing of your child will follow the preaching of the sermon, and will include a promise made by you as parents, by the godparent(s) (if any), and by the congregation. You will be invited to stand at the front with your child and any godparents.

"MOTHER'S NAME and FATHER'S NAME have had their lives enriched and blessed by the gift of their child: CHILD'S NAME.

Today they have come here to thank God for $\underline{HIS / HER}$ presence and the difference $\underline{HE / SHE}$ has made to their lives.

Also, they have invited us as a congregation to share in their joy and on their behalf to ask God's blessing upon CHILD'S NAME, and upon them, that they may worthily face the challenges and privileges of parenthood in the years ahead.

This we gladly do, in the name of Jesus Christ whose express wish was that children should be brought to him, and not be kept back, that He might lay His hands upon them and bless them."

• The congregation are invited to stand.

Promise — Parents: MOTHER'S NAME and FATHER'S NAME

"I do"
